Privacy Notice - End of Year Teaching, Learning and Assessment (TLA) Survey

This Privacy Notice only covers personal data collected on the teaching and learning survey. MidKent College has an additional Privacy Notices that cover student data. These privacy notices can be found on the College website.

Purpose of Processing

(This section tells you the reasons why we are collecting data. It also tells you who we are collecting data about.)

To help us understand the opinions of students, the College is conducting a survey. The College will use the survey responses to identify what is working well and to help improve the services offered.

To ensure that responses are from College students and for the correct course, the College will use existing data to issue and confirm which students have completed the survey. This information will only be accessible to the survey administrator. If students wish for their named responses to be shared with the Head of Department they can opt to do so at the end of the survey. This is optional and if students do not give consent for their responses to be named then anonymous response will be shared with the Heads of Department. Anonymised analysis will be published on a wider scale to enable to College to fulfil its Strategy.

The survey provided free text options for students to give written feedback. Student are asked to not provide personal information in these boxes. All comments will be reviewed by the survey administrator. If any comments indicate safeguarding or welfare issues College will use the information to follow up on the concern. This data will be processed in line with the College's Student Privacy Notice.

The College's legal basis for collecting and processing personal data submitted from the survey under the General Data Protection Act 2016/679 (EU) (GDPR) is:

Article 6 (1)(a) the data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more specific purposes. The College will issue the survey to students but there is no expectation that students have complete it. Student can give consent the end of the survey for their named responses to be shared with their Head of Department.

Article 6 (1)(e) processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest.

For the purposes of the above, the College's public tasks are the following the statutory functions:

- Ofsted Handbook – point 117 - Surveys of the views of learners, employers, parents/carers and staff carried out by the provider, funding bodies or other organisations provide evidence for the inspection and may indicate themes to explore further.
- Ofsted Handbook – point 274 - ... responses to the staff, learner, employer and parent/carer questionnaires. These will be particularly useful for judging the culture that leaders and managers have established
- Safeguarding powers in Section 175 of the Education Act 2002. The College is obliged to respond to safeguarding or welfare issues should any be identified.

Data sharing

(This section tells you who your personal data will be shared with and the reasons why.)

The survey administrator will have access to all responses. Other College staff will only have access to the data necessary for the purposes of their role.

The anonymised analysis of survey responses will be downloaded and stored onto the College network/devices and will be made accessible to College employees.
