

Main Gate Entrance, Dock Road (A231)
Entrance if arriving by public transport / walking

Medway School of Arts,
Sail and Colour Loft

Security Entrance
(Golf Control)
Entrance if arriving from visitor attraction car park, off Western Ave

FOR YOUR SAFETY: The Historic Dockyard Chatham is private property and a working historic dockyard with the possibility of moving plant and vehicles. To all visitors, tenants, invitees (authorised and unauthorised); Please keep to designated paths and roadways but please be aware that cobbled areas, paved areas, timber, steel etc. walkways within the dockyard may not always be even and can be slippery when wet. This may make some areas unsuitable for people with access problems or the elderly. You are advised to wear suitable footwear and we reserve the right to refuse admission into the dockyard, any exhibit or area within, to anyone not wearing such. Please do not touch or climb on any exhibit unless invited to do so. The owner and occupier of the dockyard will not be held liable for any loss, damage or injury that is suffered to person or property whilst you are within The Historic Dockyard Chatham (however such loss, damage or injury is caused).
PARKING IS AT YOUR OWN RISK

Western Ave

Navigating through the Dockyard to the Sail & Colour Loft

From The Visitors Attraction Car Park:

If you are driving and parking in the Visitor Attraction car park you will need to access the site by foot from the Security Entrance.

You then walk up East Road, you will see a sign saying "University of Kent Student Access route" follow this direction, and you will go past the residential car park on your left, The Joiners Shop on your right and the Craft and House Carpenters workshops on your left (A.P. Laphorn / Kore Purchase / FNX, Georgian Brickwork / Anchor / Armour / Invicta Marine). As you get to the end of East Road (The Forge will be on your left) proceed straight ahead through Medway Gardens.

At the end of Medway Gardens turn left up the steps, walk past the Cashiers Office (on right) and go up the second set of steps.

At the top of the steps turn right and the Sail & Colour Loft is on your left. Walk past the entrance to HandRail Designs and Medway School of Arts is the next entrance.

Please be aware that there is an ANPR system and you will be charged £3.50 for a stay of over 30 minutes.

Before you exit the car park you will need to pay at the parking kiosk. Which is situated outside the security entrance barriers (in front of visitor's attraction).

If you are coming from the visitor's attraction car park and require a route without steps:

Follow East Road round to the right (you will see the ships directly in front of you) and turn left up Main Gate Road. Continue walking past the Clock Tower building (on left), Wagon Stop Canteen (on right) and Commissioners House (on left),

You will then take a left onto College Road (opposite The Ropery). Walk up College Road (The Commissioners Gardens are on your left, and The Royal Dockyard Church is on your right). At the crossroads turn left. The Sail & Colour loft is on your right - walk past the entrance to Thinking Solutions and Medway School of Arts is the next entrance.

From MainGate Entrance:

Take the first left onto College Road.

At the crossroads, proceed straight over. The Sail & Colour loft is on your right - walk past the entrance to Thinking Solutions and Medway School of Arts is the next entrance.

Blue Badge Holders:

Blue Badge holders only can park directly outside Medway School of Arts.

Please enter the Dockyard through the Main Gate Entrance and drive up College Road, go straight over at the crossroads and park in a bay opposite the School.